NOTES

Questions for Further Study & Reflection:
Title: Urban Heroes Text: Nehemiah 11-12

1. What was probably challenging, even difficult, for the people who were chosen to populate Jerusalem by moving from their home towns? What blessings might they have encountered in that move?
2. What is challenging about living in an urban setting? What are the potential blessings?
3. What do you think are the challenges we face actually seeking to BE part of the church IN downtown? What are the potential advantages? How can we better capitalize on the advantages while overcoming the challenges?
4. Read the following verses and answer the question, "What does God say your "calling" in Jesus Christ is?" See Romans 1:6,7; I Cor. 1:2,26; Eph. 4:1; Phil. 3:14; 2 Tim. 1:9; Heb. 3:1; Jude 1:1.
5. Has God called you to a particular ministry or people? How can the church help you be fruitful in that calling?
6. Think of some follower of Jesus who was relatively unknown but impacted your life for Christ. What made them significant as someone used of God in your life?
7. How can we know where God wants us to live? What should be the priorities and issues that determine that?
8. What were some of the heart characteristics and actions of the people mentioned in these two chapters that made Jerusalem a great place to live again? How could we as a church cultivate those same actions and hearts?
